Ring Dinner 2014

Getting my onyx made it official that I have become a big part of Meredith College. Ring dinner was one of the best experiences because all of my 2016 sisters came together.

Everyone looked stunning and ready to hear someone announce that we could put our rings on. I am extremely excited to take this ring with me on my journey after graduation, and use it represent my wonderful school.

Move in day was such an exciting time and the whole day I was filled with emotions that ranged from nervousness to pure joy! My favorite memory was probably walking up to my door for the first time and seeing how beautifully my Big, Alexa Hillan, had decorated it! Seeing my decorated door, driving under the balloon arch, getting a visit in my room from my student advisors, and receiving gifts from my Big were all ways that helped me feel welcomed into the Meredith community and are what made move in day such a great freshman memory!

Kendall:

The Big Sis, Lil Sis program is by far my favorite tradition at Meredith. I got really lucky with my Big, and I can honestly say she is one of my best friends at Meredith! Being a Little is so much fun and I wouldn't trade our relationship for anything!

Jessica:

Being a part of Meredith's sisterhood is a blessing in itself! I absolutely love being a Big Sis to my Little, Kendall. Not only do we get to share our college experiences together, but a bond of sisterhood that lasts forever. The laughs, the tears, and the conversations we share mean the world to me and I'm so lucky to have her as my sister!

"My favorite experience as a Meredith lacrosse player was winning the conference championship last year. One girl got too into 'Love on Top' by Beyoncé, and broke the trophy while dancing on the bus ride home. But our team was so happy after winning that game, that we just laughed, and danced with the trophy in two pieces instead of one."

Having You For A Daughter,
 You are a flower that blooms in adversity; making you the rarest and most beautiful of them all.
 Please know that no matter where you go, I will always be your mother and the bond between us can't be broken because only love can enter here! No matter where you go I will be there from this day forward
 - now and forever.

Just keep seeking the power to be strong and the wisdom to be wise for in learning you will teach and in teaching you will learn. So lift your spirit, set it free for some day you will walk tall with pride Child of God, a Woman of God in time you'll be.
 Know that life is full of choices, but have no fear, let courage see you through. Simply put your faith in what you most believe in; trust your heart, let fate decide and it will guide the life you see.

Lastly, remember that this is not the perfect ending;
 instead it is the perfect beginning!
 I am so very proud of you - You Have Brought Honor To Us All.
 I Love Most,

"Do not let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity." 1Timothy 4:12

What do you say to a young woman who has been the center of your life for 21 years as she reaches another milestone and starts off on a new journey sharing her love for learning and life?

You tell her that it has been a privilege watching her grow in knowledge and faith. You remind her that you are and always will be proud of her as a woman, a teacher, a friend. You tell her that you wait with anticipation as God continues to unpack the plan he has for her life. You instruct her to be confident in all her endeavors knowing that she is loved beyond measure. Most importantly to honor God and to continue to trust him completely.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11

In memory of Vicky Pivitsiripakde

I think that the feeling of not "being comfortable in one's own skin" is the result of our fall from heaven.

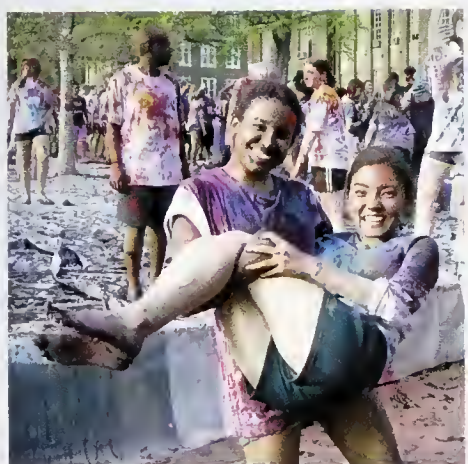

I imagine our souls in beautiful bodies created to perfection to the likeness of God himself. I imagine we would have the ability to fly gracefully, effortlessly with or without wings.

I image we were once like angels and our dreams of flying are the reminiscences of past experiences of our angel-like selves.

I don't dream of flying very often but I believe that's because I'm so stuck on Earthly ways. I am so aware and my Earthly senses are so sharp.

If I could let go and be carefree my senses will let go and rise to the level of an otherworldly being. I will experience absolute freedom; free of pain and sorrow - that is heaven to me.

-Vicky Pivitsiripakde

Letter from the Editor

I want to send one million thanks to the staff, our Meredith Advisor, Dr. Rebecca Duncan, and our Jostens Advisor, Kim Trezona. I would also like to thank all those in the Meredith Archives for allowing me to use their great pictures and ask them endless amounts of questions about Meredith's history. Without all of you this book would not have been possible!

With this being my first year as Editor, the staff and I learned a lot together. For that, I want to thank each of you so much for always putting up with my constant emails and my lateness (I should really set my watch a few minutes fast). Each of you put in so much work on this book, and it truly shows. Thank you so much for all of your hardwork, dedication, and laughs at our meetings.

The theme, Timeless Traditions, brings back memories not only from the past year, but also from the past 124 years of Meredith history. The staff and I tried to incorporate many aspects of Meredith's past throughout this book. The black and white pictures seen on many of the pages have been taken from the Meredith Archives. We wanted to capture these memories and bring them back to life by sharing them with each of you!

As you take this book with you in the future, be sure to remember each of the timeless traditions that you were a part of here at Meredith.
